

Acceptable use policy for the Pennsylvania Search & Rescue Council email list server

The Pennsylvania Search & Rescue Council email list server is for exchanging information pertinent to the PSARC. Acceptable and appropriate types of information for posting on the server are, for example: Training announcements, Council business, Ideas and discussion on council issues.

This list server is not intended/provided for the purpose of “flame wars”, propagating derogatory comments of other teams, organizations, council members or individuals or any issue, derogatory or otherwise, that does not pertain to the Pennsylvania Search & Rescue Council.

If any of the aforementioned unacceptable postings occur, perpetrator(s) of such entries will be banned from the email list serve of the Pennsylvania Search & Rescue Council, pending review by the Board of Directors. The decision of the Board of Directors is final.

The Board of Directors and the Web Committee hope that you find the email list serve to be a valuable tool to better inform and communicate among the members of the Pennsylvania Search & Rescue Council.

Sincerely yours,

The Board of Directors
